

Where to Buy in Westery

INDUSTRIAL TRUST COMPANY,
Westerly Branch.

Capital ..... Three Million Dollars
Surplus ..... Three Million Dollars
Over Fifty Thousand Accounts.
Liberal, courteous and efficient in its management.

Established 1901.
Harold L. Wells, O. D., Optometrist.
Defective vision corrected by the proper adjustment of lenses. Room 2, Foster-Langworthy Block, Westery, R. I.

DIAMONDS

It will pay you well to get our prices on diamonds loose or mounted, before purchasing.
CASTRIUS,
Leading Westery Jeweler.

HEAVY AND LIGHT HARNESS

MADE BY HAND.
Hand Made Work is Our Specialty.
Whips and all Harness Supplies carried in stock. Factory Made Harness in stock at $12.00 and up.

W. H. SAUNDERS,
Removed to 44 West Broad Street,
Westerly, R. I.

Imported Dinner Ware

We are opening new patterns in China Dinner Sets, our own importation. We are showing over forty Open Stock Patterns, decorations and shapes not to be found elsewhere.
We deliver free to all our customers.
STANTON'S BAZAAR, Westery, R. I.

BABIES

Soon they will be big boys and girls and their baby faces will be only a memory. Bring the babies and I will catch their smiles.
STILES, The Photographer,
Brown Building, Westery, R. I.
Telephone 247. W333d

Buy Your Shoes and Hosiery

and get a coupon on the Plans to be given away at PURILL'S,
"ON THE BRIDGE."
W333d

LAWTON'S SANITARY FISH MARKET

on the river; no dust; no odor; everything wholesome and clean. All kinds of Fresh Fish and Sea Foods in their season. Market 177 Main Street, Westery, foot of Cross Street, Tel. 344.
Give us a call. aug14d

Manicuring, Dermatology, Shampooing,

Surgeon, Chiropodist, Scalp Treatment, Hair Dressing.
MRS. M. L. ELLIS
Professional Massages, Body and Facial Massages
Hair Goods a specialty. Fine Violin.
44 Main St., Westery, R. I.
W333d Telephone 490.

WESTERY'S LEADING CLOTHING

STORE—
R. G. Bliven & Co.,
On the Bridge.
REGAL SHOE AGENCY.
We give S&H Green Trading Stamps with all purchases.

Monumental Works

I will guarantee to make a monument at the lowest possible cost consistent with good work. My experience of years is at your service.
ALEXANDER ROBERTSON,
Oak St. near High, Westery, R. I.

GEO. L. STILMAN,

proprietor of the Stilman's Carriage Co.,
Cognate St., Westery, R. I.
Carry the largest stock of new and second hand carriages and wagons. Also a full line of harness and parts of harness. Carriage repair and painting and automobile painting. W333d

For Electrical Supplies

and Construction, see
ROBERT M. HISCOX & CO.,
Tel. 497. 62 Main St., Westery.

FOR SALE.

Two seven-room cottages, situated in different parts of the city of Westery, R. I., each having 60 foot front and both having vacant and adjoining that can be secured at reasonable prices if a purchaser desires. Both having heat, electric lights, modern plumbing. Inspection invited.
Frank W. Coy Real Estate Co.,
Feb14d Westery, R. I.

Gilliepie treatment of the hair and scalp, cures falling hair, baldness, eczema, dandruff and other irritations, itching, burning, etc. Endorsed by leading physicians. Shampooes, dry treatments, special treatments, manicure. Miss Lillian Thomas, High St., Potter-Langworthy Building (Up Stairs). W333d

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having purchased the photograph studio of A. A. Schofield, 23 Main Street, we are ready to prove to the people of Westery and vicinity our ability to do the very best work. beautiful 16x20 water colored portrait of yourself given free with every dozen $4.00 cabinet. F. Rouleau & Co., Westery.

City Pharmacy

TRY OUR
ICE CREAM, SODA AND COLLEGE
ICES While Waiting for Your Car.
36 Canal St., Westery, R. I.
W333d

The Washington Trust Co.,

WESTERY, R. I.
Capital ..... $200,000
Surplus ..... $200,000
Executes Trusts.
Pays Interest on Deposits.
Good service—Considerate attention are guaranteed the patrons of this institution.

See my new samples of Fall and Winter Woollens. Custom Made Suits $12.50 and up.

J. F. PELLEGRINI,
No. 4 Main St., Westery.
W333d Cleaning, Pressing and Repairing.

MONUMENTS

Before purchasing it's to your interest to correspond with me.
MAURICE W. FLYNN, Manufacturer and Builder,
103 W. Main Street, Westery, R. I.
W333d Telephone 247.

Westerly Honors Col. J. A. Babcock

Many Mourners at Funeral on Tuesday—Local Men to Speak at State Library Meeting—Rev. F. C. Baker Declines Reappointment—Miss Hall's Quick Trip to Europe—High School Honors.

The funeral of Col. Joseph Alonzo Babcock, Civil war veteran, Mason of high degree, member of the school board, town moderator, judge of probate, town councilman, representative in the legislature, deacon of the First Baptist church over forty years and one of the most prominent citizens of Westery, was held at the First Baptist church Tuesday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. George W. Rigler, D. D., and the musical portion was by the church choir. There was a large attendance, including comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic and Masonic brethren. The ritualistic committal service of these organizations were omitted in response to the desire that the funeral be as unostentatious as possible. The bearers were Deacons Stephen A. Congdon, George B. Taylor, William H. Greene, Ethan Wilcox, Thomas H. Peabody and Albert C. Martin. Burial was in the family plot at River Bend.

Westerly will be prominent at the winter meeting of the Rhode Island Library association to be held Wednesday in the free library at Arlington, as the opening addresses of the morning and afternoon sessions will be by Westery men. The order of exercises will be as follows: Morning Session—Business; address, Book Buying in New York, Ethan Wilcox, librarian emeritus, Westery public library; address, From Coast to Coast, Miss Jane E. Gardner, formerly of Seattle public library. Afternoon Session—Address, The Spenser Within the Gates, Joseph L. Peacock, librarian, Westery public library; address, Libraries from the Outsider's Point of View, Rev. G. C. Atkin, D. D., Central Congregational church, Providence.

Rev. Frederick C. Baker, a former pastor of Grace Methodist church, Westery, will close his pastorate of the Center Methodist church in Fairhaven, Mass., next Sunday, having declined to accept a return. His pastorate there has been very successful and his departure occasions much regret. Rev. Mr. Baker is secretary of the conference board of stewards of the New England southern conference, secretary of the Willimantic Camp Meeting association and publisher and manager of the conference year book.

There is, or was, one young woman in Pawcatuck who can prepare for a trip to Europe in as quick time as others can to go to the theater. This was demonstrated by Miss Ellen Hall of Pawcatuck, librarian, Westery public library, who was employed in New Bedford for some time and on Tuesday morning visited his daughter at her work in the Clark thread mill. He told her he was going on a pleasure trip to visit relatives in England and invited her to go with him. She accepted and he left Westery on the noon train for New York.

There was a meeting of the senior class of the Westery High school Tuesday afternoon. By unanimous vote Charles F. Rhodes, Jr., was elected class president. The speakers were: Harry J. Nichols, orator; Thomas Sparke, speaker; Maud Briggs, musician; Harriet E. Nye, class poet; Sally E. Coy, class prophet; Gertrude Austin, historian. The scholarship honors will be awarded after completion of examinations. The contest is close for valedictorian and salutatorian.

The Sunday school board of Grace Methodist church has elected these officers: President, Robert M. Hiscox & Co., Plumber, Steam and Gas Fitter and Dealer in Supplies.
44 Main Street, Westery, R. I. and Wauwinnet Ave., Watch Hill, R. I. aug14d

Hart Schaffner &amp; Marx

Clothes ARE SOLD BY
I. B. CRANDALL CO.,
nov20d Westery, R. I.

SMITH'S GARAGE.

Cars to rent; storing of cars; complete repair department. Full line of supplies. Tel. 330. nov23d

EAT AT MURRAY'S STAR

RESTAURANT,
next to Star Theater, Westery, R. I.
Regular Dinner, 25c. Meals at all hours. nov12d

AGENCY FOR THE

New Home Sewing Machines
The highest running, best constructed, and the price is right. Call and see a demonstration at
THE NEW YORK STORE,
54 High Street, Westery. nov15d Wm. H. Browning.

MISS ROSE AHERN

Ladies' Hatter
42 High St., Westery

We are moving to the Potter-Langworthy

Block, 68 High Street, on or about Jan. 1st, 1910. Great removal sale now going on.

Mechanics Clothing Co.

Westerly, R. I.
dec15d

for the next conference year: William J. Symons, superintendent; Rouse C. A. Babcock, assistant; Thomas Sparke, secretary; J. T. Parker, assistant; Mrs. R. C. A. Babcock, treasurer; J. J. Pine, missionary treasurer; Marmaduke Osborn, librarian; Alvin Pine, assistant; Lillian Dower, pianist; Lillian Rowling, assistant; William C. Spargo, chorister.

The regular fellowship meeting of the seven Congregational churches in this section will be held today (Wednesday) in the Congregational church, Pawcatuck. At 11 o'clock Rev. F. M. Hollister of North Stonington will deliver the fellowship address. Dinner will be served at noon and there will be a discussion of Christian Hope commencing at 2 o'clock.

Local Laconics.
Smelts are unusually scarce in the Pawcatuck river.

The troublesome buckle flies have appeared and soon buckles will furnish favorite fishing sport.

The Pawcatuck schools will close next Friday for our winter vacation. A week later the Westery schools will suspend studies for one week.

Rev. William McVicker, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Rhode Island, will administer the rite of confirmation in Christ Episcopal church, Westery, Easter Sunday morning.

Ex-Gov. George H. Utter, H. Hobart Babcock and Frank P. Dodge of Westery dined with President Taft at the big banquet of the Manufacturing Jewelers' association in Providence Monday night.

Charles F. Rhodes, the negro captured in Westery by Chief Bransfield for assaulting girls in Wakefield, has been sentenced to six months in the Providence county jail and to pay fines and costs amounting to $150.

Miss Carrie Lovett Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Mitchell, of Quonochontaug, and Harry Bradford Miller of Charlestown were married in Westery Monday afternoon. Rev. George W. Rigler officiated at the ceremony.

There were two operations performed in the Westery sanitarium Tuesday, the first at that institution, and both were successful. The operations were by specialists from Providence, assisted by Drs. Champlin and Scanlon of Westery.

There was a special session of the superior court for Washington county to hear the contested divorce case of Abby A. Barber against John Ray Barber, both of Exeter, the charges being adultery, continued drunkenness, neglect and extreme cruelty. Judge Rathbun denied the petition and the order for weekly allowance was revoked.

Capt. Daniel Champlin, Company H, Twenty-sixth Connecticut regiment, and the only surviving captain of that command, attended the funeral of J. Alonzo Babcock Tuesday. Captain Champlin resides at Potter Hill. First Lieut. Samuel Tillinghast of the same company, a resident of Stonington, also attended the funeral. Second Lieut. John F. Jencks resides in Chicago.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Essex.—Capt. A. L. Swan butchered on Saturday a six months' old pig which weighed 240 pounds.

Norwalk.—Mrs. E. J. Hill, wife of the congressman, is suffering from pneumonia at Hot Springs, Ark.

Middletown.—Andrew Fitzpatrick left Arizona, where he intends to go to work in silver mine.

Torrington.—The old Warrenton Woolen company's chimney, 100 feet and five inches high, was brought down Monday.

Shelton.—The work of renumbering the houses of the borough was begun this week under the immediate supervision of Warden L. E. Moulthrop.

Wolcott.—The Rev. C. P. Ketchen has accepted a call to the Congregational church in Marlborough and expects to move his family there about April 1.

Berlin.—The sentiment among the townspeople against the reckless speeding of automobiles on the local thoroughfares seems to be increasing every day.

Meriden.—The Meriden Turner society will hold its convention next Sunday at Turner hall. Delegates from all parts of the state will be present, also from Holyoke, Mass.

New Britain.—The insurance map for New Britain, showing the location of all the buildings, and their surroundings, which has been in preparation since last summer, has been issued.

Somers.—The marriage engagement of Miss Flora C. Hurlburt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hurlburt, of Somers, and Robert H. Frew, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Frew, of Enfield street, has been announced. The wedding will take place soon after Easter.

Hartford.—E. D. Robbins of Hartford, one of the attorneys of the New Haven railroad, has just purchased the new house which H. A. Fabian is building in St. Row's New Haven, and it is understood he intends to make it his residence. Mr. Fabian recently moved to Boston.

Poor Opinion of the Students.
The average student is about as well qualified to judge of the influence of his professor's teaching as is the little child to judge of the quality and quantity of candy he should eat.

Her Hope.
Every woman rises in the morning with at least one glad hope, which is that some store may be advertising special bargains in something.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Unsurveyed Land in Arabia.
The London Times of recent date shows that Arabia is considered as containing one of the most considerable areas of unknown land in existence.

Mighty Close.
"Riches may not fetch what we want," calls "happiness," said Brother Williams, "but they come mighty close to it when they pay house rent."

Eighty-seven in every 100 Canadian farmers own their own farms.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S SPEECH

AT NEW YORK PRESS CLUB.

Indirectly Apologized for Recent Remarks—Occupying President's Chair Has Its Discouragements—Audience Sing About "Uncle Joe."

New York, March 22.—President Taft, facing a crowd of 500 newspaper men and editors at the New York Press club this afternoon, indirectly apologized for his remarks concerning the press made in a recent speech in Chicago. He explained his attitude after John A. Hennessey, president of the club, had remarked in a speech that he did not agree with the president's views.

Then Mr. Taft said: "Reference has been made by your chairman, Mr. Hennessey, to a speech I made before the Chicago Newspaper club. I did little more than say my kind of a speech I was going to make there any more than I do now, but the chairman of the Chicago club whistled. I went up to speak and much availed myself, bowed my way through the crowd and enthusiastically grasping his unwilling hand, exclaimed in earnest and admiring tones: 'Oh, Mr. Cannon, I am so glad to meet you. I want to tell you that I think you are just a grand man. I hate those 'insurgents' and I am glad they didn't put you out of congress.' The old gentleman fell back in confusion and beat a hasty retreat to his automobile."

Later it was learned that the speaker's double was Hiram B. Weeks of St. Albans, Vt., who is visiting his son-in-law, Representative Roberts of Massachusetts.

HOME GARMENT MAKING.
The Bulletin's Pattern Service.

"This traveling business, I believe," he said, "has been the subject of some criticism. Well, I am a traveler. I got into the presidency by traveling and I can't get over the habit. When you are being hammered as I sometimes am in Washington, not only by the press, but by members of your own party in Washington, and one feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, the pleasure of going out into the country, of going into a city that has not seen a president for twenty years, and then making a fuss over him in order to prove to him that there is somebody that feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, is a pleasure that I don't like to forego."

"Now, my dear friends, for I hope to call you such at least for this afternoon, I shall bring my remarks to a close with a grateful expression of my appreciation of the cordial welcome which has been given me."

Although the assemblage at the Press club sang in chorus, to the tune of "Old Uncle Ned," a parody describing the recent events in the house of representatives, President Taft made no reference to the Cannon episode in his speech for twenty years, and then making a fuss over him in order to prove to him that there is somebody that feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, is a pleasure that I don't like to forego."

"Hang up the gavel and cigar, Close up the house and sign a bar; There is trouble and woe for poor Uncle Joe, 'Cause he went just a little too far."

Rules for Right Conduct.
If you want to be somebody, do something in the world, and be honest. Next best to your fellows, lay the foundation of character strong and solid to resist the temptations and trials the world will put in your way in your onward march through life. Nail your colors to the mast of integrity and defend them with the ammunition of right thinking and well doing.

Pig Errantry.
The report of the cattle market committee presented at Colchester town council the other day contained an item to a pig starving, followed by "Resolved, That the town clerk communicate with the offender, warning him against committing any offense in future." It was touching to hear that penitent animal giving its word of honor that nothing of the sort should occur again.—London Globe.

Cheerfulness.
Cheerfulness is a thing to be more profoundly grateful for than all that genius ever inspired or talent ever accomplished. Next best to natural, spontaneous cheerfulness is deliberate, intended and persistent cheerfulness, which we can create, can cultivate and can so foster and cherish that after a few years the world will never suspect that it was not an hereditary gift.—Helen Hunt Jackson.

Boarding Houses.
The first time a man eats at a boarding house he is a Chesterfield in manners, but before he has taken three meals there he is playing a grab game like the rest of them. It is impossible to cultivate repose of manner and get enough to eat at a boarding house.—Atchison Globe.

China's Multiple Crops.
China has three crops of tea—the spring crop in April, the second in May and the "even flower" crop about the first of July. The export season is throughout the year. Three crops of rice are harvested; export of this product is prohibited.

A Texas Chattel Mortgage.
A peculiar chattel mortgage was filed with the county clerk of Gonzales county recently, wherein nine turkey hens, one rooster, and all their increase, are mentioned as collateral.—Gonzales Inquirer.

No Harm in Air Castles.
Building air castles is a solace to the overworked and overburdened. It may be a blessing or a curse. If you can do a day's work cheerfully and control your castle-building there is no harm.

The Spreader of Joy.
A chirping woman in the house may be told that silence is golden now and then, but in the long run her music will be looked upon as an angelic accompaniment to the day's work.

Beefsteak Tester Mistaken for Speaker Cannon.
Amusing Incident at Center Market, Washington, Draws a Crowd.

Washington, March 22.—An amusing incident occurred at the Center market here today when a white-haired gentleman, with a stern mouth and "halo whiskers" was mistaken for Speaker Cannon. He was testing with a rigid index finger a large porterhouse steak when he was "discovered."

Immediately a large crowd gathered. Finally, a woman of mature years and much avoirdupois, elbowed her way through the crowd and enthusiastically grasping his unwilling hand, exclaimed in earnest and admiring tones: "Oh, Mr. Cannon, I am so glad to meet you. I want to tell you that I think you are just a grand man. I hate those 'insurgents' and I am glad they didn't put you out of congress."

The old gentleman fell back in confusion and beat a hasty retreat to his automobile.

Later it was learned that the speaker's double was Hiram B. Weeks of St. Albans, Vt., who is visiting his son-in-law, Representative Roberts of Massachusetts.

HOME GARMENT MAKING.
The Bulletin's Pattern Service.

"This traveling business, I believe," he said, "has been the subject of some criticism. Well, I am a traveler. I got into the presidency by traveling and I can't get over the habit. When you are being hammered as I sometimes am in Washington, not only by the press, but by members of your own party in Washington, and one feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, the pleasure of going out into the country, of going into a city that has not seen a president for twenty years, and then making a fuss over him in order to prove to him that there is somebody that feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, is a pleasure that I don't like to forego."

"Now, my dear friends, for I hope to call you such at least for this afternoon, I shall bring my remarks to a close with a grateful expression of my appreciation of the cordial welcome which has been given me."

Although the assemblage at the Press club sang in chorus, to the tune of "Old Uncle Ned," a parody describing the recent events in the house of representatives, President Taft made no reference to the Cannon episode in his speech for twenty years, and then making a fuss over him in order to prove to him that there is somebody that feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, is a pleasure that I don't like to forego."

"Hang up the gavel and cigar, Close up the house and sign a bar; There is trouble and woe for poor Uncle Joe, 'Cause he went just a little too far."

Rules for Right Conduct.
If you want to be somebody, do something in the world, and be honest. Next best to your fellows, lay the foundation of character strong and solid to resist the temptations and trials the world will put in your way in your onward march through life. Nail your colors to the mast of integrity and defend them with the ammunition of right thinking and well doing.

Pig Errantry.
The report of the cattle market committee presented at Colchester town council the other day contained an item to a pig starving, followed by "Resolved, That the town clerk communicate with the offender, warning him against committing any offense in future." It was touching to hear that penitent animal giving its word of honor that nothing of the sort should occur again.—London Globe.

Cheerfulness.
Cheerfulness is a thing to be more profoundly grateful for than all that genius ever inspired or talent ever accomplished. Next best to natural, spontaneous cheerfulness is deliberate, intended and persistent cheerfulness, which we can create, can cultivate and can so foster and cherish that after a few years the world will never suspect that it was not an hereditary gift.—Helen Hunt Jackson.

BEEFSTEAK TESTER MISTAKEN

FOR SPEAKER CANNON.

Amusing Incident at Center Market, Washington, Draws a Crowd.

Washington, March 22.—An amusing incident occurred at the Center market here today when a white-haired gentleman, with a stern mouth and "halo whiskers" was mistaken for Speaker Cannon. He was testing with a rigid index finger a large porterhouse steak when he was "discovered."

Immediately a large crowd gathered. Finally, a woman of mature years and much avoirdupois, elbowed her way through the crowd and enthusiastically grasping his unwilling hand, exclaimed in earnest and admiring tones: "Oh, Mr. Cannon, I am so glad to meet you. I want to tell you that I think you are just a grand man. I hate those 'insurgents' and I am glad they didn't put you out of congress."

The old gentleman fell back in confusion and beat a hasty retreat to his automobile.

Later it was learned that the speaker's double was Hiram B. Weeks of St. Albans, Vt., who is visiting his son-in-law, Representative Roberts of Massachusetts.

HOME GARMENT MAKING.
The Bulletin's Pattern Service.

"This traveling business, I believe," he said, "has been the subject of some criticism. Well, I am a traveler. I got into the presidency by traveling and I can't get over the habit. When you are being hammered as I sometimes am in Washington, not only by the press, but by members of your own party in Washington, and one feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, the pleasure of going out into the country, of going into a city that has not seen a president for twenty years, and then making a fuss over him in order to prove to him that there is somebody that feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, is a pleasure that I don't like to forego."

"Now, my dear friends, for I hope to call you such at least for this afternoon, I shall bring my remarks to a close with a grateful expression of my appreciation of the cordial welcome which has been given me."

Although the assemblage at the Press club sang in chorus, to the tune of "Old Uncle Ned," a parody describing the recent events in the house of representatives, President Taft made no reference to the Cannon episode in his speech for twenty years, and then making a fuss over him in order to prove to him that there is somebody that feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, is a pleasure that I don't like to forego."

"Hang up the gavel and cigar, Close up the house and sign a bar; There is trouble and woe for poor Uncle Joe, 'Cause he went just a little too far."

Rules for Right Conduct.
If you want to be somebody, do something in the world, and be honest. Next best to your fellows, lay the foundation of character strong and solid to resist the temptations and trials the world will put in your way in your onward march through life. Nail your colors to the mast of integrity and defend them with the ammunition of right thinking and well doing.

Pig Errantry.
The report of the cattle market committee presented at Colchester town council the other day contained an item to a pig starving, followed by "Resolved, That the town clerk communicate with the offender, warning him against committing any offense in future." It was touching to hear that penitent animal giving its word of honor that nothing of the sort should occur again.—London Globe.

Cheerfulness.
Cheerfulness is a thing to be more profoundly grateful for than all that genius ever inspired or talent ever accomplished. Next best to natural, spontaneous cheerfulness is deliberate, intended and persistent cheerfulness, which we can create, can cultivate and can so foster and cherish that after a few years the world will never suspect that it was not an hereditary gift.—Helen Hunt Jackson.

Boarding Houses.
The first time a man eats at a boarding house he is a Chesterfield in manners, but before he has taken three meals there he is playing a grab game like the rest of them. It is impossible to cultivate repose of manner and get enough to eat at a boarding house.—Atchison Globe.

China's Multiple Crops.
China has three crops of tea—the spring crop in April, the second in May and the "even flower" crop about the first of July. The export season is throughout the year. Three crops of rice are harvested; export of this product is prohibited.

A Texas Chattel Mortgage.
A peculiar chattel mortgage was filed with the county clerk of Gonzales county recently, wherein nine turkey hens, one rooster, and all their increase, are mentioned as collateral.—Gonzales Inquirer.

No Harm in Air Castles.
Building air castles is a solace to the overworked and overburdened. It may be a blessing or a curse. If you can do a day's work cheerfully and control your castle-building there is no harm.

The Spreader of Joy.
A chirping woman in the house may be told that silence is golden now and then, but in the long run her music will be looked upon as an angelic accompaniment to the day's work.

Beefsteak Tester Mistaken for Speaker Cannon.
Amusing Incident at Center Market, Washington, Draws a Crowd.

Washington, March 22.—An amusing incident occurred at the Center market here today when a white-haired gentleman, with a stern mouth and "halo whiskers" was mistaken for Speaker Cannon. He was testing with a rigid index finger a large porterhouse steak when he was "discovered."

Immediately a large crowd gathered. Finally, a woman of mature years and much avoirdupois, elbowed her way through the crowd and enthusiastically grasping his unwilling hand, exclaimed in earnest and admiring tones: "Oh, Mr. Cannon, I am so glad to meet you. I want to tell you that I think you are just a grand man. I hate those 'insurgents' and I am glad they didn't put you out of congress."

The old gentleman fell back in confusion and beat a hasty retreat to his automobile.

Later it was learned that the speaker's double was Hiram B. Weeks of St. Albans, Vt., who is visiting his son-in-law, Representative Roberts of Massachusetts.

HOME GARMENT MAKING.
The Bulletin's Pattern Service.

"This traveling business, I believe," he said, "has been the subject of some criticism. Well, I am a traveler. I got into the presidency by traveling and I can't get over the habit. When you are being hammered as I sometimes am in Washington, not only by the press, but by members of your own party in Washington, and one feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, the pleasure of going out into the country, of going into a city that has not seen a president for twenty years, and then making a fuss over him in order to prove to him that there is somebody that feels that there is not anything quite right that he can do, is a pleasure that I don't like to forego."